

Track your Assets for Total Fleet Efficiency

Connected Vehicles offers state-of-the-art fleet tracking tools to help scale your business with flexible solutions for your platform.

Reduce stops and maximize your productivity with asset tracking that works for a variety of business growths, offering scalability.

Our Top of the Line Asset tracking Products

We offer a variety of means to track logistics, including fuel usage, trucker distraction, and maintenance issues to provide full efficiency for your fleet.

Phillips Asset Trac offers two minute installation with daily reports on the motions, trip time, and all stops, and includes engine hours, mileage, and when the ignition is turned off an on.

Blackberry radar monitors your assets non-powered and offers next-generation monitoring for even the toughest industry requirements, including cargo sensors to read the cargo tracking of your fleet.

Be Ware asset tracking, which creates cost-effective innovations for asset tracking and inventory management that's weatherproof and ruggedized for industrial vehicles.

Flex asset management to help make sure that work from the ground up successfully.

Asset tracking is vital to ensuring your fleet's being used in the most efficient way possible. Keep your business as productive as possible and reduce driver frustration, miniatous costs, and time utilized for asset location.